DEFENDANTS' RESPONSE TO SHOW CAUSE ORDER

Come now SERVICE FIRST LOGISTICS and DONALD BAKER, Defendants in the above style cause, and pursuant to this Court's Order of December 12, 2007, requesting the Defendants to show cause as to why the present case meets the threshold amount in controversy of $75,000.00, submit the following response:

1. In their Complaint, the Plaintiffs seek an unspecified amount of damages for their injuries which they claim arose out of the accident made the basis of this lawsuit.
2. Although the exact amount of the Plaintiffs' medical bills is not known at this time, as discovery is just being initiated, Plaintiffs' counsel has informally provided medical records for the Plaintiffs that total approximately $25,000.00.
3. Given the amount of the medical bills that are claimed to be related in this case, it is not unreasonable to believe that the amount in controversy is in excess of $75,000.00, and as such, this case meets the threshold requirements relating to diversity jurisdiction set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1332.
